DUSTIN RAWLIN NAMED A 2012 LAW360 RISING STAR

Cleveland, Ohio, April 9, 2012 — Tucker Ellis LLP is pleased to announce that Dustin Rawlin is one of only five attorneys nationwide to be named a 2012 Law360 Rising Star in the area of product liability litigation. The designation honors attorneys under the age of 40 whose accomplishments in major litigation or transactions belie their age. A team of eight Law360 editors reviewed over 1000 submissions and based their selections on the strength of the attorney's accomplishments thus far in their career.

"Dustin is a key player on the Tucker Ellis team," said Joe Morford, Tucker Ellis Managing Partner. "He is definitely deserving of this honor, having racked up an impressive record of early career accomplishments. We are really excited to watch Dustin's star continue to shine as more clients learn about what a uniquely talented and passionate lawyer he is."

Dustin represents businesses in complex civil litigation matters in courts throughout the United States involving product liability, business tort, breach of warranty, consumer fraud and commercial litigation, with a focus on the defense of medical device litigation. Dustin is also very active in local community service and has been appointed to provide pro bono representation in criminal matters before the Sixth and Tenth Circuit Courts of Appeals and has handled a number of civil rights and wrongful eviction cases referred by the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland.

Dustin attended Boston College where he received both his BA and MA. He received his JD from the Duke University School of Law.
