Local Attorney Elected to Federal Bar Association National Board of Directors

CLEVELAND, OHIO – Kip T. Bollin, a litigation partner at Thompson Hine LLC in Cleveland, was elected to serve on the Federal Bar Association’s 12-member national board of directors. The Federal Bar Association (FBA) represents more than 16,000 federal lawyers, including 1,200 federal judges, and serves as the national representative of the federal legal profession.

Bollin also serves on the FBA’s national budget and finance committee, the membership committee, and as chair of the FBA’s task force for review of membership growth and benefits. He previously served on the FBA’s nominations and elections committee, and is a past president of the FBA Northern Ohio Chapter. Bollin is a member of the Advisory Group to the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, and chairs a subcommittee of the civil rules committee that is analyzing the Court’s default rules governing class actions.

Bollin focuses his legal practice on the defense of product liability and business claims, including putative class actions. Prior to joining Thompson Hine, he was a law clerk to the late Honorable Sam H. Bell of the Northern District of Ohio, Eastern Division.

The Federal Bar Association – Northern District of Ohio is a professional organization for attorneys and members of the judiciary who practice in the federal system or have an interest in federal law. FBA is committed to strengthening the federal legal system and administration of justice by serving the interests and needs of the federal practitioner, both public and private, the federal judiciary and the public they serve. The Northern District of Ohio Chapter has more than 600 members. More information is available at www.fba-ndohio.org.
